BUCKWHEAT CULTIVATION TO INCREASE -- Rzeczpospolita, No 71, 13 Mar 49

Numerous requests for buckwheat have been received by the Polish granaries from abroad especially from Britain, Norway, and Holland.

The price of 27 dollars per 100 kilograms makes cultivation of buckwheat very profitable. The great domestic and foreign demand will undoubtedly increase the cultivation of buckwheat. Another reason for increased cultivation is the fact that buckwheat does not require especially good soil.
